Reiseverlauf im Detail

01 Halifax Arrival

❖ Arrive in Halifax Airport and pick up your rental car. Transfer independently to your hotel.

Hotel: Delta Halifax

02 Halifax - South Shore

~Driving distance: 135 Mi./215 km.

❖ This morning at 08:00 hours you will be met at your hotel by your AmericanTours representative and provided with complete documentation including driving instructions and maps. Venture south to famous Peggy's Cove, and on via Mahone Bay to colorful Lunenburg. Tonight stay in the South Shore region.

Hotel: Oak Island Resort

03 South Shore - Wolfville

~Driving distance: 230 Mi./365 km.

❖ In the morning go inland over the Kouchibouguac NP. Drive, where you will visit the park's visitor center. This drive is a scenic link between the South Shore and the Anapolis Valley. From there travel north, parallel with the shore of the Bay of Fundy, famous for its highest tides. Overnight in Wolfville.

Hotel: Old Orchard Inn

04 Wolfville - Amherst

~Driving distance: 155 Mi./250 km.

❖ Along the shores of the Minas Basin, through small communities, across the Avon River towards Truro, then further north to Amherst where you spend the night. Little villages along the way show us the way locals live in this area.

Hotel: Comfort Inn

05 Amherst - Kouchibouguac NP - Moncton

~Driving distance: 65 Mi./105 km.

❖ Today enter New Brunswick, where you travel up the shores of the Northumberland Strait to Kouchibouguac NP. This section of the Acadian coast is home to Aborigines, Acadians and English people. Take a fun lobster cruise with Shediac Bay Cruises to learn all about the lobster trade. After the hard work sit down for a lobster dinner spiced up with local fun and friendliness. Overnight in Moncton.

Hotel: Delta Beausejour

06 Moncton - Charlottetown

~Driving distance: 180 Mi./290 km.

❖ Travel from Moncton to Jourimain where the 12.9 km long Confederation Bridge is built. This is the only land connection between the mainland and Prince Edward Island, and the longest bridge over ice covered waters in the world. Today we visit the land of "Anne of Green Gables". Fall in love with this island, which is known as potato growing country. But PEI has a lot more to offer. Overnight in Charlottetown.

Hotel: Best Western Charlottetown

eest Reisen - Mietwagen Touren Ostkanada

07 Charlottetown

❖Sightseeing in PEI. Enjoy a day of pretty vistas, rolling countryside, sandy beaches, slow rivers and people that enjoy outdoor activities. One of the prettiest towns in PEI is Montague. Return to Charlottetown for the night.

08 Montague - Baddeck

~Driving distance: 180 Mi./290 km.

❖From Wood Island take the ferry back to Nova Scotia. Just on the other side is Pictou. It was settled in 1773 by the Scottish Highlanders, and this historic town built a replica of the first ship that brought these settlers. From there drive to Cape Breton Island, to the town of Baddeck, perfect starting point for the Cabot Trail the next day. A famous resident of this area was Alexander Bell, who had a home in this region.

Hotel: Inverary Resort

09 Baddeck - Sydney

~Driving distance: 185 Mi./300 km.

❖A famous drive today, the Cabot Trail. Start off by traveling to the Margaree Valley, you will meet the waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence at Margaree Harbour. From there make the famous loop and stop for beautiful views that appear around every corner. On the Atlantic Ocean side see windswept beaches and small fishing communities. After the Cabot Trail travel to Sydney, the 'Steel City'.

Hotel: Comfort Inn

10 Sydney - Antigonish

~Driving distance: 155 Mi./250 km.

❖Today travel south. Visit Louisburg, the largest historic restoration project in Canada. Travel along the shoreline of Bras D'Or Lake. This saltwater lake is in reality an arm of the ocean, a great feeding ground for bald eagles. You should be able to see some. Overnight in Antigonish.

Hotel: Comfort Inn

11 Antigonish- Halifax

~Driving distance: 255 Mi./360 km.

❖A visit to Sherbrooke restored historical village will delight you. A replica from the 1860-80 period, complete with costumed guides. Then it's back to Halifax for one more night. Make sure to visit some of the local pubs filled with the local music, a sure way to give a happy ending to this Atlantic Canada tour!

Hotel: Delta Halifax

12 Halifax

❖Return your rental car to Halifax Airport prior to your return flight.
