REISEROUTE

DAY 1 - MONTRÉAL

Welcome to the beautiful city of Montréal, discovered in 1535 by Jacques Cartier, and founded more than a century later, in 1642. Today it mixes old and new with a charm and cosmopolitan flare that make it one of the most unique cities in Canada. Overnight in Montréal.

DAY 2 - RIVIERE-DU-LOUP 450 KM

Today you travel the south shores of the St. Lawrence northeast to the town of Riviere-du-Loup. You'll find the Parc des chutes de la Riviere du Loup—a terrific spot for a picnic or a late afternoon stroll. Overnight in Riviere-du-Loup.

DAY 3 - BONAVENTURE 407 KM

Along route today there are a few sites that may be of interest, including Restigouche National Historic Site and the Forest & Salmon Interpretive Center. Once you reach Carleton, journey up to Mont Saint-Joseph to catch a panoramic view of Baie-des-Chaleurs and Ile au Heron, and visit the historic chapel. A short drive along the coast brings you to Bonaventure overlooking the Baie des Chaleurs. Overnight in Bonaventure.

DAY 4 - PERCÉ 198 KM

This region is renowned for terrific bird watching opportunities, as well as for terrific hiking and walking trails. Continue your journey through charming towns and fishing villages, until you catch a glimpse of the spectacular 'Rocher Percé'. Overnight in Percé.

DAY 5 - PERCÉ

Spend a leisurely day exploring this beautiful corner of the Gaspésie. Take a cruise to Bonaventure Island and the Rocher Percé. You will see thousands of gannets and plentiful marine life who live there. Up to 250,000 birds nest on the island, including a 70,000 strong northern gannet colony. Then take time to explore this quaint village that has been a popular destination for travelers since the 1930s. Overnight in Percé.

eest Reisen - Mietwagen Rundreisen Ostkanada

DAY 6 - MATANE 370 KM

Continue your discovery of the Gaspésie as you drive along Forillon National Park, located at the mouth of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Hiking and walking trails and bluffs overlook the ocean, so keep your eyes open as you may see whales surfacing just off shore. Before Forillon National Park was created, a fishing community was based here, and the Grande-Grave heritage site showcases a rich human history peopled by the fishermen and merchants who lived in Forillon in the early 20th century. Your day ends in the town of Matane. Overnight in Matane.

DAY 7 - MATANE

Situated at the confluence of the Matane River and the St. Lawrence River, Matane is worth exploring. Spend the day seeing the sights, perhaps visiting a lighthouse or the Salmon Interpretation Centre. There is a lot to see and do in Matane. Overnight in Matane.

DAY 8 - LES ESCOUMINS

A short ferry connects the coastal towns of Matane and Baie-Comeau. Once in Baie Comeau continue south along the Manicouagan region and the north shore of the St. Lawrence River to the town of Les Escoumins. Overnight in Les Escoumins

DAY 9 - POINTE-AU-PIC

As today is not a long driving day, perhaps it would be an opportune time to take advantage of the whale watching opportunities in the area. Located at the mouth of the Saguenay, Tadoussac offers wonderful whale watching, and exploring this charming town on foot is a treat. A short ferry ride takes you to the other side of the Saguenay River, then follow the St. Lawrence through Charlevoix country before arriving in Pointe-au-Pic, a favourite for tourists since the early 20th century. Overnight in Pointe-au-Pic

DAY 10 - POINTE-AU-PIC

Spend the day exploring this wonderful region, perhaps enjoying a round of golf, or walk the hills overlooking the river. Charming restaurants and shops await your discovery. Overnight in Pointe-au-Pic.

DAY 11 - QUÉBEC CITY 200 KM

En route, be certain to visit Baie-Saint-Paul; home to fishermen and a community of artists, this charming village is a living fresco with its quaint cafes and art galleries. A journey along the shores of the St. Lawrence River takes you to Québec, a city very intimately tied to the river. This incredibly beautiful port is North America's only fortified city and has earned a UNESCO designation as a World Heritage city. It will not take long to discover the intrinsic charm of 'New France'; the winding cobblestone streets, quaint boutiques and worldclass restaurants welcome visitors from around the globe. Overnight in Québec.

DAY 12 - DUCHESNAY 45 KM

A short drive out of Québec City brings you to the Auberge Duchesnay. Spend the next two days by the lake, enjoying the many activities available. Overnight in Duchesnay.

DAY 13 - DUCHESNAY

Your day is free at leisure for you to relax and enjoy. Overnight in Duchesnay.

DAY 14 - MONTRÉAL 265 KM

Time to leave the quiet and serene town of Duchesnay. Today you head back to Montréal for your final night in Canada. Your final day can be spent shopping and exploring those yet uncovered jewels in Old Montréal! Overnight in Montréal.

DAY 15 - DEPART

Make your way to the airport where you will return your rental car and prepare for your flight home.

Wir empfehlen eine Verlängerung um ein bis zwei Nächte in Montreal
