REISEROUTE

DAY 1 – MONTRÉAL

Upon arrival at the Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport, obtain your rental car and travel into the historic city of Montréal, known as the “city of one hundred steeples”. Imposing and exuberant, or discreet and reverent, Montréal’s churches are as eclectic as they are edifying. The “Church” in Québec, was especially in the beginning, largely Catholic; today, Catholicism shares the stage with countless other religions, and mosques, synagogues and Buddhist temples are now an integral part of the religious scenery.

Overnight in Montréal.

DAY 2 – MONTEBELLO 138 KM

Today travel into the Papineau region, located less than 90 minutes from Montréal, to Montebello. This large territory is very picturesque, with uneven, rolling farmscapes in the centre region and luxuriant forests in the North. Fairmont Le Château Montebello is an exceptional resort famed for its rugged luxury. Here, in a stunning red cedar log château, you'll experience rustic elegance enhanced by a warm welcome.

Travel to Québec City today, with its unequalled historical and cultural heritage. The architecture, pedestrian streets and fortifications are unique in North America. ### DAY 11 – QUÉBEC CITY

Today, we suggest a walking tour of Québec within Old Québec's stone walls. The commanding wall, declared a historical monument in 1957, forms a 4.6 kilometre-long defensive belt around the old city. A sentry path lined with interpretative signposts runs atop the ramparts and gates, allowing the visitor to understand the evolution of the defence system of the last fortified city remaining north of Mexico City.
